LAUSD/UTLA- Approved Online Professional Development Courses

Earn salary points with PCG's LAUSD/UTLA-approved online courses.

CTEL Preparation: Teaching English Learners Across the Curriculum | featuring Elizabeth Jimenez
Elizabeth Jimenez provides content knowledge for all of the California Teacher of English Learners (CTEL) competencies that will help teachers prepare for the CTEL exam. LEARN MORE

*Pedagogical Strategies for English Learners | featuring Eugenia Mora-Flores Dr. Mora-Flores
Dr. Mora-Flores demonstrates intentional pedagogical practices and enhanced learning experiences that guide English learners to succeed and close achievement gaps. LEARN MORE

*Relationally Responsive Classroom Management | featuring Alan Green, Xiomara Mateo-Gaxiola
Green and Dr. Mateo-Gaxiola empower educators to effectively teach an increasingly diverse student body by cultivating meaningful relationships with all students. LEARN MORE

*Differentiating Teaching and Instruction: What, How, Why? | featuring Sandra Kaplan
This course builds knowledge and skills in designing instruction that meets a wide variety of learners' needs and cultivates meaningful engagement in the classroom. Educators will learn to design and implement differentiation strategies in response to student needs, interests and abilities, by modifying curriculum and instruction and classroom environment. LEARN MORE

*Facilitating Learning for Speakers of Non-Standardized English I featuring Uju Anya
Facilitating Learning for Speakers of Non-Standardized English: This course prepares K-12 educators with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to understand the linguistic and cultural background of academic English learners and promote their academic language proficiency and achievement. LEARN MORE

*USC Rossier Equity Educator Certificate Program LEARN MORE

If you have any questions, please contact us at 800.728.0032 or at onlinepl@pcgus.com

PCG | Education